MOXIE

This year I celebrate 44 years as a goldsmith. Since my start in the summer of 1978 a lot has changed; gold was selling for $130 dollars per ounce as opposed to hitting an all time high in 2022 of over $2000 per ounce. In 78' realizing that I was still very young, my thoughts were "if not now, when?" So, I developed a business plan and moved forward. Now, 44 years later, I realize what a wise decision I made as a twenty year old. That being said, none of this would have been possible without your support over the years.
